WE GATHER TOGETHER

We gather as a community of faith to meet God in new ways, and we reflect on the hope and promise of God's gift to us through Jesus Christ.

Welcome and Greetings – Pastor Peter

Prelude

“Be Thou My Vision”
Tune: Slane; arr. Dan Forrest

Traditional Irish melody

 Call to Worship (Spoken responsively) –

Our God knows us intimately.

God, you knew us before we knew ourselves.

Our God is holy.

Holy God, you consecrate us.

Our God will reassure.

Holy God, you will give us words to speak.

Let us worship God!

 Hymn 482

“Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty”

Lobe den Herren

Call to Confession (Seated) –

Prayer of Confession (In unison) –

Lord God, we are so bound by rules and regulations that we fail to see the human need that goes beyond the bounds of structures. We easily relegate compassionate service to those agencies in our society that have that as their mandate, forgetting that you have given us the supreme mandate to care for one another, even as you have cared for us. We turn our backs on those in need, giving the responsibility to someone else. “Let someone else do the work,” we proclaim. And in that proclamation, we have revealed our inability to be your disciples. Forgive us, again, as you have so often before when we fell short of being your witnesses and workers. Help us become involved in ministries of peace and justice right where we are, for your love is needed in all creation. Let us bring messages of love and hope to all people. Bring us to an understanding of the partnership of healing and hope that abides in your service. For we ask these things in Jesus’ Name...

(A moment of silence for personal reflection & confession...)

Amen. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon (Read responsively) –

Though we have failed time and time again to be God's people, yet God heals and forgives us.

God is with us always, ready to lift and guide our lives.

Place your life and your cares in God's loving presence. Friends: hear and believe the good news of the gospel!

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

* Gloria Patri – Hymn 567

“Glory to the Father”

John Weaver

* Passing of the Peace (Spoken responsively) –

Since God loved us so much, we are free to love one another.

Let us love one another since love comes from God.

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all!

Peace be with you!

(Greet one another sharing God’s peace now and throughout the week.)

WE HEAR GOD’S WORD

We hear the stories of our faith in scripture, song, prayer, and sermon.

Children’s Message –

(Following the Children’s message, children in third grade and below are invited to depart for Children’s Worship downstairs in Carmel Hall.)

Unison Prayer for Illumination (In unison) –

Almighty God, you know us better than we know ourselves. By your word, give us wisdom, by your Spirit, grant us healing, and set us free to serve you with love. We ask this through the One who heals in your name, Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Reading –

The first lectionary reading is Jeremiah, chapter 1, verses 4-10; p. 656). The Lord calls young Jeremiah: Before you were born, I knew you. Listen now for the Word of God to you!

The Lord’s word came to me:

“Before I created you in the womb I knew you;

before you were born I set you apart;

I made you a prophet to the nations.”

“Ah, Lord God,” I said, “I don’t know how to speak because I’m only a child.”

The Lord responded,

“Don’t say, ‘I’m only a child.’

Where I send you, you must go;

what I tell you, you must say.

Don’t be afraid of them,

because I’m with you to rescue you,”

declares the Lord.

Then the Lord stretched out his hand,

touched my mouth, and said to me,

“I’m putting my words in your mouth.

This very day I appoint you over nations and empires,

to dig up and pull down,

to destroy and demolish,

to build and plant.”

This is the Word of the Lord!

Thanks be to God!

 Hymn 223

“O My Soul, Bless Your Redeemer”

Stuttgart

(The hymn is based on the lectionary Psalm of the day: Psalm 103, verses 1-8; p. 523-524. Bless the Lord, O my soul; the Lord forgives, heals, and redeems.)

New Testament Reading –

The second lectionary reading is Hebrews, chapter 12, verses 18-29; p. 213. Worship with reverence and awe; our God is a consuming fire. Listen now for the Word of God to you!

You haven't drawn near to something that can be touched: a burning fire, darkness, shadow, a whirlwind, a blast of a trumpet, and a sound of words that made the ones who heard it beg that there wouldn't be one more word. They couldn't stand the command, if even a wild animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned. The sight was so frightening that Moses said, “I'm terrified and shaking!”

But you have drawn near to Mount Zion, the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem, to countless angels in a festival gathering, to the assembly of God's firstborn children who are registered in heaven, to God the judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous who have been made perfect, to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks better than Abel's blood.

See to it that you don't resist the one who is speaking. If the people didn't escape when they refused to listen to the one who warned them on earth, how will we escape if we reject the one who is warning from heaven? His voice shook the earth then, but now he has made a promise: Still once more I will shake not only the earth but heaven also. The words “still once more” reveal the removal of what is shaken—the things that are part of this creation—so that what isn't shaken will remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that can't be shaken, let's continue to express our gratitude. With this gratitude, let's serve in a way that is pleasing to God with respect and awe, because our God really is a consuming fire.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

New Testament Gospel Reading –

The gospel reading from the lectionary is Luke, chapter 13, verses 10-17; p. 71. Jesus heals a woman on the Sabbath; a synagogue leader objects. Listen now for the Word of God to you!

Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. A woman was there who had been disabled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and couldn't stand up straight. When he saw her, Jesus called her to him and said, “Woman, you are set free from your sickness.” He placed his hands on her and she straightened up at once and praised God.

The synagogue leader, incensed that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, responded, “There are six days during which work is permitted. Come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath day.”

The Lord replied, “Hypocrites! Don't each of you on the Sabbath untie your ox or donkey from its stall and lead it out to get a drink? Then isn't it necessary that this woman, a daughter of Abraham, bound by Satan for eighteen long years, be set free from her bondage on the Sabbath day?” When he said these things, all his opponents were put to shame, but all those in the crowd rejoiced at all the extraordinary things he was doing.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Offertory

"Thou Art God"
Peter Heckman, soloist

Lionel Bourne
(b. 1960)

Thou art the peace of all things calm,
Thou art the place to hide from harm,
Thou art the light that shines in dark,
Thou art the heart's eternal spark,

Thou art the door that's open wide,
Thou art the guest who waits inside,
Thou art the stranger at the door,
Thou art the calling of the poor.

Thou art the peace of all things calm,
Thou art the place to hide from harm,
Thou art the light that shines in dark,
Thou art the heart's eternal spark,

Thou art the door that's open wide,
Thou art the guest who waits inside,
Thou art the stranger at the door,
Thou art the calling of the poor.

Thou art peace, Thou art calm, Thou art my love,
Thou art my Lord and with me still,
Thou art my love, keep me from ill,
Thou art the light, the truth, the way.
Thou art my Saviour this day,
Thou art my Saviour this very day.

Text: David Adam (b. 1936)

(An Usher will bring the Offering Plate forward, returning it to the rear of the Sanctuary.)

 Prayer of Dedication of Time, Gifts, and Tithes (In unison) –

Loving God, we rejoice that our lives are already consecrated by you. Inspired by the knowledge of your love, giving thanks for the gifts you offer us each day, we pray that these offerings and our lives may further your kingdom on earth. Amen.

WE ARE SENT TO SERVE GOD

Renewed and refreshed by our experience with God and God's congregation, we go into the world to share God's love.

 Hymn 423

"Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun"

Duke Street

 Charge and Benediction (From Luke 12:49-52) –

Go forth into the world rejoicing, sure of what the healing God offers.

We will share the good news with all, seeking those who feel unknown and forgotten.

Be strengthened in your faith!

We will trust in the kingdom that cannot be shaken.

May the blessing of God, like a mother's love, sustain us.

May the peace of God, like a strong castle, protect us.

May the hope of God, like a consuming fire, enlighten us, this day and forevermore.

Amen.

He was the pastor of 3 different churches for 25 years and is now a full-time counselor/therapist in private practice for 22 years. Nancy is delighted to be with you to help on the organ today, and happy, for the first time, to see the beautiful interior of your building that has been seen so many times from the outside. She's often heard Carmel Presbyterian referred to as "the church on the hill." We welcome Nancy!

SERMON SERIES ON PRESBYTERIAN & REFORMED CORE CONVICTIONS IN SEPTEMBER—Pastor Peter will offer a series of sermons on “What it means to be Presbyterian, Protestant, and Reformed” this fall running for six Sundays, beginning on September 11th and continuing through October 23rd (with a gap Sunday on World Communion Sunday, October 2nd). We’ll start with “Grace—What It Means for You”, then think together about the Bible, the sovereignty of God, the priesthood of all believers, the life of the mind, and finally, the worship of the heart.

We will meet Wednesdays: September 14, 21,28, and October 5. Generosity is often understood as an act of kindness that involves giving out of one’s abundance to others in need. Well, that’s a narrow definition! The Carmel group will examine Biblical teachings that describe the practice as something a little different. Generosity is simply, and profoundly, love in action. A Zoom link will be emailed each week prior to the class.
