

Carmel Presbyterian Church
Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
November 6, 2022
10:00 AM

We enter this church not as strangers, but as children of God.

Order of Worship

 Please stand, as able.*

Congregation voices Bold responses.

WE GATHER TOGETHER

We gather as a community of faith to meet God in new ways and reflect on the hope and promise of God's gift to us through Jesus Christ.

Welcome and Greetings –

Prelude

Sonatina, BWV106
from "Gottes Zeit ist die allerbeste Zeit"

J. S. Bach

 Call to Worship (Spoken responsively; based on Luke 18:14) –

On this Sunday following All Saints Day, we remember and celebrate saints of yesterday and of today; faithful people who set their hopes on Christ and who with their lives, praised God.

May our hearts and minds be open to new realities in Christ. We want to be counted among the saints who will inherit your kingdom.

Friends: God is here!

We, your people, meet to offer praise and prayer.

May we find in fuller measure ...

what it is in Christ we share.

May we, in this hour, commit ourselves to live lives that are pleasing to God.

Let us worship God!

 Hymn 461

"God Is Here!"

Abbot's Leigh

Call to Confession (Seated) –

Prayer of Confession (In unison) –

We confess our discomfort with uncertainty. We confess our desire for personal power and our desperate grabs for control. We confess our need for everything to make sense. And yet, Great God of mystery, there is so much beyond us and our understanding. Remind us we are human. Humble us in your presence. Help us rest in the faith that your grace is sufficient...

(A moment of silence for personal reflection & confession...)

Amen. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon (Read responsively) –

God's grace is given freely.

God's love is steadfast.

Receive the good news that you are forgiven, and live liberated from sin to the glory of God.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Thanks be to God! Amen.

 Gloria Patri – Hymn 567

“Glory to the Father”

John Weaver

 Passing of the Peace (Spoken responsively) –

Rejoicing in the love of the one for whom we wait, let us exchange signs of Christ's peace: May the peace of Christ be with you, today and always.

May the peace of Christ be with you, today and always.

(Greet one another sharing God's peace now and throughout the week.)

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

We hear the stories of our faith in scripture, song, prayer, and sermon.

Children's Message –

(Following the Children's message, children in third grade and below are invited to depart for Children's Worship downstairs in Carmel Hall.)

Unison Prayer for Illumination (In unison) –

Open us, Holy One, to your Word and your way. Clear our minds of daily distractions. Fill our hearts with the humility we need to hear and receive the message you intend for us today. Amen.

First Reading –

The first reading is Job, chapter 19, verses 23-27a; p. 443). I know that my Redeemer lives; at the last, I will see my God. Listen now for the Word of God to you!

Oh, that my words were written down, inscribed on a scroll
with an iron instrument and lead, forever engraved on stone.

But I know that my redeemer is alive and afterward he'll rise upon the dust.
After my skin has been torn apart this way—
then from my flesh I'll see God, whom I'll see myself—
my eyes see, and not a stranger's.

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

New Testament Reading –

The second reading from the lectionary is from Second Thessalonians, chapter 2, verses 1-5 and 13-17; p. 200. Do not be deceived; stand firm and hold fast to our traditions. Listen now for the word of God to you!

Brothers and sisters, we have a request for you concerning our Lord Jesus Christ's coming and when we are gathered together to be with him. We don't want you to be easily confused in your mind or upset if you hear that the day of the Lord is already here, whether you hear it through some spirit, a message, or a letter supposedly from us. Don't let anyone deceive you in any way. That day won't come unless the rebellion comes first and the person who is lawless is revealed, who is headed for destruction. He is the opponent of every so-called god or object of worship and promotes himself over them. So he sits in God's temple, displaying himself to show that he is God. You remember that I used to tell you these things while I was with you, don't you?

.... But we always must thank God for you, brothers and sisters who are loved by God. This is because he chose you from the beginning to be the first crop of the harvest. This brought salvation, through your dedication to God by the Spirit and through your belief in the truth. God called all of you through our good news so you could possess the honor of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions we taught you, whether we taught you in person or through our letter. Our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and a good hope. May he encourage your hearts and give you strength in every good thing you do or say.

This is the Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

New Testament Gospel Reading –

The gospel reading from the lectionary is Luke, chapter 20, verses 27-38; p. 79. The Sadducees ask Jesus a question about marriage and resurrection. Listen now for the Word of God to you!

Some Sadducees, who deny that there's a resurrection, came to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies leaving a widow but no children, the brother must marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers. The first man married a woman and then died childless. The second³¹ and then the third brother married her. Eventually all seven married her, and they all died without leaving any children. Finally, the woman died too. In the resurrection, whose wife will she be?

All seven were married to her.”

Jesus said to them, “People who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage. But those who are considered worthy to participate in that age, that is, in the age of the resurrection from the dead, won’t marry nor will they be given in marriage. They can no longer die, because they are like angels and are God’s children since they share in the resurrection. Even Moses demonstrated that the dead are raised—in the passage about the burning bush, when he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. He isn’t the God of the dead but of the living. To him they are all alive.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Sermon

“Equal to Angels”

Pastor Peter

WE RESPOND TO GOD’S WORD

Inspired by the promise of God’s Word, let us give our thanks and praise – so we may continue God’s work as we move into God’s week.

 Hymn 384

“O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go”

St. Margaret

Remembering and Celebrating the Saints

We remember those who have died since All Saints’ Day Sunday in the past year. We celebrate their lives, even as we continue to grieve.

We remember:

Timothy Dougherty – November 27, 2021

[Bell Tolls]

We remember:

James Thompson, Sr. – December 23, 2021

We remember:

Leslie Mitchell - April 12, 2022

[Bell Tolls]

We remember:

Arlene G. Hackman – August 23, 2022
[Bell Tolls]

We remember:
Catherine Bauer – October 15, 2022
[Bell Tolls]

We remember:
Everett Kohn— October 23, 2022
[Bell Tolls]

We remember:
Eugene Morris— October 24, 2022
[Bell Tolls]

And we remember all those who have gone before us.
(Moment of silence; then, the bell will toll.)

Litany of Remembrance (Spoken responsively)

In the rising of the sun and its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys, we yearn to share, and we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

Prayer of Thanksgiving for the Saints (In unison.)

Timeless God: we thank you for all those before us who have kept the faith to the end. We thank you for brave souls of deathless fame, and also for those whose names are remembered only by you. Give us the wisdom to understand your will and the courage to live as your people in this day; through the grace of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Invitation to the Offering (From 2 Corinthians 9:7) – Pastor Peter

(Our hearts are open, and our ministries are continuing seven days a week. Your contribution or pledge payment sustains our presence as the church in the local and global community. Please place your offering on the offering plate at the usher's invitation, give it online, or mail your offering envelope to the church office.)

Offertory

“Give Us the Wings of Faith” Sanctuary Choir

James Whitbourn
(b. 1963)

*Give us the wings of faith to rise Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys, How bright their glories be.
Give us the wings of faith to rise Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys, How bright their glories be.
We ask them whence their victory came: They with united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb, Their triumph to his Death.
They marked the footsteps that he trod, His zeal inspired their breast,
And, following their incarnate God, They reached the promised rest.*

Text by Isaac Watts

 Doxology 592 “Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow” Old Hundredth
(Ushers will bring the Offering Plate forward, returning it to the rear of the Sanctuary.)

 Stewardship Dedication Litany of Pledges, Time, Gifts, and Tithes (Read Responsively) –

Holy God, how often we take for granted all that we have.

How often we fail to recognize how blessed we are.

God of grace and goodness, in your love you have blessed us in so many ways.

You have given us the gifts of mind, heart, hand, and love.

By your Spirit, we are blessed with the gifts of duty, care, and service.

By your Spirit, you have given us the legacy and the gifts of inspiration, abilities, and possibilities.

O God, we respond to your grace and love with the desire to serve you and the world.

Aware of our reservations, our limitations, and our uncertainties, we trust in you.

With joy and anticipation, we show our faithfulness by giving back to you our blessings...

The blessings of time and talents; the blessings of ministries and energies; the blessings of spiritual and material gifts; the blessings of intentions and commitments.

Receive these gifts, Creator God – expressions of our being one in you and with one another for the sake of Christ, the Head of the Church.

Take these gifts we give in response to your generosity and use them to further Christ’s mission and ministry in a hurting world. And we dedicate our pledges and future support of the church for next year’s budget. Amen.

Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper

Sharing Joys and Concerns

Invitation to The Lord’s Table

O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you!

And also with you!

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy and right it is, and our joyful duty to give thanks to you at all times and in all places, O Lord, our Creator, almighty and everlasting God! You created heaven with all its hosts and the earth with all its plenty. You have given us life and being, and you preserve us by your providence.

But you have shown us the fullness of your love in sending into the world your Son, Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, made flesh for us and for our salvation. For the precious gift of this mighty Savior who has reconciled us to you, we praise and bless you, O God. With your whole church on earth and with all the company of heaven we worship and adore your glorious name.

Sanctus – Hymn 581 (Sung by the congregation) “Holy, Holy, Holy Lord” Joseph Roff

Holy, holy, holy Lord. God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

Most righteous God, we remember in this supper the perfect sacrifice offered once on the cross by our Lord Jesus Christ for the sin of the whole world. In the joy of his resurrection and in the expectation of his coming again, we offer ourselves to you as holy and living sacrifices.

Together we proclaim the mystery of the faith:

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, we pray, that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be to us the communion of the body and blood of Christ.

Grant that, being joined together in him, we may attain to the unity of the faith and grow up in all things into Christ, our Lord. And as this grain has been gathered from many fields into one loaf, and these grapes from many hills into one cup, grant, O Lord, that your whole church may soon be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus! We pray as you taught us to pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Words of Institution and Distribution of the Elements by Intinction

Responsive Invitation

Come, then, for all is ready.

I am not worthy that you should come under my roof; but speak one word only,
Lord, and I shall be healed.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

I shall receive the bread of heaven. I shall drink the cup of salvation.

(Please come forward using the center aisle, keeping socially distanced, and take bread. Then, choose red juice for red wine or clear juice for grape juice, placing your cup in the reciprocal available. You may return to your seat via the side aisles.)

Announcements

Guests: You Are Welcome Here

WE CORDIALLY WELCOME THOSE WHO ARE VISITING TODAY. We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in our worship, mission, and programs; we are happy to share our ministry with you. We’d like to get to know you. Please introduce yourself to a person nearby and be sure to join us downstairs in Carmel Hall for refreshments and conversation after worship! We hope your worship experience is meaningful and you will gather with us again soon. Should you wish for Hearing Devices and/or Large Print Bibles & Hymnals, they are available from an usher. Sign our guest book at the sanctuary entrance (or share your email/contact information in the offering plate for a weekly email of future worship and activities). We invite you to speak with the Pastor if you are interested in membership. A Virtual Fellowship Time is also possible on Zoom. And, restrooms are located down the long hallway just past the Church Office in the Education Building.

CARMEL IS HAPPY TO PROVIDE FOR THE YOUNG MEMBERS of our congregation by offering Nursery Care and Children's Worship (Grades K-3) during the Sunday 10:00 am worship service. We request that if you desire nursery care for your child during Sunday worship, please call the Church Office by Friday noon, so that the nursery is staffed. Children's Worship does not require reserving ahead. Children leave the Sanctuary for Carmel Hall after the Children's Message. We welcome our young families, either in person or in virtual worship. Any questions may be addressed to Janet Simon, Christian Education Committee chair; or Melissa MacFarland, Children's Worship leader.

THIS MORNING, THE FLOWERS IN OUR SANCTUARY are given in loving memory of Douglass Warburton by his wife Gail.

All SAINTS' SUNDAY WORSHIP CONCLUDES WITH STEWARDSHIP LUNCH – Today we share Communion and Carmel's All Saints Remembrance of members who joined the church triumphant during the past year. On this Sunday, we remember and honor the Christian faithful, both those throughout the church's history and those of our congregation who have died within the past year. And, following worship, all are invited to the Stewardship Pledge Campaign's 2023 Hoagie Lunch with information and questions. Along with the lunch, information concerning church expenses and why we spend them as we do. Questions will be welcome. Immediately after the Stewardship Luncheon, pitch in to help package 200 pasta meals in a Christ Is Calling Mission Project for Caring for Friends.

Heard About the Soup Group—Join the Fellowship and Help Others ON FRIDAY! Soup Group: Eat, converse, and serve! For All the Saints

SINE NOMINE 10.10.10 with alleluias

William Walsham How, 1864

Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

1. For all the saints who from their la-bors rest, Who
 2. Thou wast their rock, their for-tress, and their might;
 *3. O blest com-mu-nion, fel-low-ship di-vine!
 4. From earth's wide bounds, from o-cean's far-thest coast, Through

Thee by faith be-fore the world con-fessed, Thy Thou, Lord, their cap-tain in the well-fought fight;
 We fee-bly strug-gle, they in glo-ry shine; Yet gates of pearl streams in the count-less host, name, O Je-sus, be for-ev-er blest.

 Thou, in the dark-ness drear, their one true light.
 all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
 Sing-ing to Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost,

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

Harmony, stanza 3

3. O blest com - mu - nion, fel-low-ship di - vine! We fee-bly strug-gle, they in glo-ry shine; Yet all are one in Thee, for all are

D.C. for stanza 4

Thine. Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

(May be sung before stanza 3)*

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
 Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
 And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!

 (May be sung before stanza 4)*

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
 Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
 And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
