Call to Worship (from Mary's Song of Praise)

L: My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.

P: For the Lord looks past what is loud and proud, and finds that which is humble and gracious.

L: The greatness of the Lord is seen in his mighty works- things he has done for his people.

P: When mercy finds a home here, and when righteousness no longer seems odd, the earth will finally know the fullness of God's goodness.

L: Let us who wait and watch adopt a spirit of assurance.

P: Let us not be surprised that the Lord keeps his promises; after all, is not the God who saves the world a righteous God?

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

In this season when our senses are constantly bombarded, we seek some solace, O God. We confess that we have lost sight of the beauty of your creation, grown deaf to the cries of those in need, and have become cold to the touch for those seeking to reach out. As such, we have become much less than you call us to be. We seek your forgiveness. (Silence is kept- offer your silent prayers of confession)

Choral Response Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus Stuttgart

Declaration of Forgiveness

L: Here is the good news, for you and for all those with whom you will share:
to those held captive by sin; to those cradling broken hearts;
to those grieving lost relationships.
God forgives us all and makes us new.

P: My heart shall sing of the wondrous gifts of the Lord! Thanks be to God who desires great things for me, for you, and for everyone. Amen!

Thou Shalt Know Him

Sanctuary Choir

Mark Sirett

(b. 1952)

Thou shalt know him when he comes, Not by any din of drums,
Nor his manners, nor his airs, Nor by anything he wears.
Thou shalt know him when he comes, Not by his crown or by his gown,
But his coming known shall be,
by the holy harmony which his coming makes in thee.
Thou shalt know him when he comes. Amen, amen.

By employing an energetic Irish folk song for its melody, this ballad-like paraphrase of the Magnificat, Mary's song at her meeting with her relative Elizabeth (Luke 1:46-55), recaptures both the wonder and the faith of the young woman who first recognized what God was doing.
