

*Have you not known? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.
He gives power to the faint
and strengthens the powerless.
Even youths will faint and be weary,
and the young will fall exhausted,
but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings like eagles;
they shall run and not be weary;
they shall walk and not faint. Amen.*

Repton

Ashley Grote, b.1982

(Hymn 432, How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord)

*Call to Worship

L: It is by grace that we are who we are:

P: people who are called by Jesus, yet fearful to follow.

L: It is by God's grace that we can become followers:

P: people who are fearful, yet gifted with courage beyond wonder.

L: It is with God's grace that we become who we might be:

P: people who step out in faith, sharing the good news generously.

ALL: From your perfect love, O God, you have brought us into faith. Again, by your gentle hand, draw us near not only by our affiliations, but in our hearts that we might seek your peace as one. Let us trust your words, and be afraid no longer.

Amen.

Will You Come and Follow Me

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

God, you long to be enthroned in our hearts, but we have given away the best seats to those who fill my belly and my financial accounts. Perhaps I have never learned your definition of life. Forgive me, Lord, for neglecting my studies. Teach me again the joys of your salvation, and the flavors of your forgiveness. Hear my silent prayer of confession. (pray silently)

*Declaration of Forgiveness

L: The One who alone is Holy became wholly human so we might see the face of grace. The One who is seated in the heavens endured the cross so we might see the face of salvation. This is our good news: we are forgiven!

P: By God's grace, with God's grace, we are who we are meant to be: forgiven, re-stored, called people. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Michael Bedford
(b. 1949)

Light of the world, light of the world, Jesus Christ is the light of the world.
Light of the world, light of the world, shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

Just as the brightly beaming star led the wise men from afar, now let the love of Christ burn bright, ever shining through the night.

Light of the world, light of the world, Jesus Christ is the light of the world.
Light of the world, light of the world, shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

Sometimes a Light Surprises

J. Williams/J. Gossler

Sanctuary Choir

(b. 1938) (b. 1949)

Sometimes a light surprises God's children when they sing;
it is the Lord who rises with healing in his wings.
When comforts are declining, God grants the soul again
a season of clear shining to cheer it after rain.

In holy contemplation we sweetly then pursue the theme of God's salvation, and find it ever new.
Set free from present sorrow we cheerfully can say,
let the unknown tomorrow bring with it what it may.

The first four stanzas of this ballad-like hymn are understood to be in the voice of Christ, with the fifth reflecting the individual singer's response. Created for this traditional Scottish tune, the text was written to mark the conclusion of a youth volunteer's time of ministry.

This is one of the most popular songs to emerge from the 1970s revival of religious song in Spain. It asks singers to become like the fishermen who left boats and nets to follow Jesus, first as disciples learning his way of love, then as apostles carrying that love to others.

This Argentine folk melody sets Spanish and English words, both created by a PC(USA) missionary with much Latin American experience. The two versions complement each other: the Spanish text offering a prayer to God, and the English one providing inspiration for the singers.
